JANUARY 21, 2010 MEETING
YVONNE CHAMBERS, EDITOR

The meeting was called to order by President Duane Keathley. Our own Woman with Mercy (literally), Stephanie Weber, gave the invocation. Kurt Wingate followed with the flag salute. Jim Cordle, after much rehearsal with Paul Sheldon, led us in a rousing chorus of “God Bless America.”

Sergeant-at-Arms, Steve Illingworth was out of town and so Bernie Herman stood in for him. While there were no visiting Rotarians from other clubs, Bernie introduced visiting Rotarians from our own club, Jim Clark and Lou Barbich. Several guests were introduced and David Dobbs introduced Jeff Newman a Rotarian that David had not seen in the 9 months that he has been a member!

ANNOUNCEMENTS...

Next Thursday, January 28th, services will be held for Claude Fiddler. The service will be at Greenlawn on River Blvd. at 2 pm. Claude is sincerely missed.

The Business Leaders Ethics Conference is March 2nd. Bruce Biggar is still in need of volunteers. Please sign up if you are available to help that day. Famous Rotarian Pat Collins was called upon to make a good news business announcement. Before his announcement, Pat made a couple of “thank you” presentations with the assistance of David Dobbs. To Steve Williford, for standing in as Sgt-at-Arms, a bottle of Marilyn’s Merlot (complete with a Marilyn Monroe label), 2007, was given. Mr. Illingworth, in abstentia, and Bernie Herman were given bottles of beer called "Arrogant Bastard". They can commiserate the role of Sgt-at-Arms together over the Arrogant Bastards. To settle the ruffled feathers of Mother Ducker Terri Bjorn, just the right wine and a check for $100 to the Center for the Blind and Visually Impaired was presented. The bottle of wine? "Blind Nymph". Pat's announcement was that he and his wife have purchased HP Sears Co. Good luck, Pat!

PROGRAM...

Harry Starkey introduced fellow Rotarian Holly Culhane as our speaker. She began by telling us that leading is getting things done through others. Holly explained that there are 4 types of people in the workforce; Lions, Otters, Retrievers and Beavers, each with their own style. She explained that in this ever changing world, the only one constant is change! In order to deal with change as a leader, you need to understand the basic dynamics, the phases of transition, the emotional interpretation and the specific steps to manage employees through change. Holly had the entire assembly stand up and participate in an exercise. A change activity?! As an illustration of how people resist change, Holly pointed out that most of us moved all the things we changed in the exercise back to where they were originally. She pointed out 7 points of change that leaders need to understand:

- Real change is awkward and uncomfortable
- People are not focused first on the benefits of change, they focus on what they have to give up
- True change is personal
- People will consider they have limited resources
- People can only take so much change at one time
- Everyone is not ready for change at the same time
- When you take the pressure off, people will revert back to the way they were.

In conclusion, Holly cited Ken Blanchard. "The key to successful leadership today is influence not authority."

The meeting was adjourned at 1:10 pm.
